

Logos Golf Ministries Scotland (LGMS) 2024/25

- Main Activities: Vincent Brown (LGMS Golfing Rep. & Ambassador) participated in 11 PGA events on Scotland's Tartan Tour. Vincent also participated in two invitational events, and two outreach events for amateur golfers (see below): -

Scottish PGA Events	Other Events	Amateur Golf Events

Through these events LGMS connected with 96 golfers, both professional and amateur. Around one in four of these golfers were first-time contacts. These events provide important opportunities: -

- to explain the aims, purposes, and modus operandi of LGMS;
- to consolidate and build on existing relationships; and
- to share life experience, offer encouragement/support, and demonstrate the relevance of the Christian faith in a golfing context by word and deed.

Trust Development: We have a national vision for LGMS and this is reflected in our participation in a wide range of events run by the PGA in Scotland. This is expected to continue as the centre piece of the ministry. We anticipate being able to re-introduce an annual ProAm as our flagship event in 2026/27. Preliminary discussions have been held with fellow PGA golf professionals, to explore the possibility of establishing a third golfdays for amateurs in the North East.

We are again grateful to Norman Forsythe, under whose direction the LGMS website continued to be maintained and updated. The website serves a number of important functions, including: -

- raising awareness, and promoting understanding of LGMS's main aims and objectives;
- promoting LGMS events and offering encouragement and support to fellow golfers;
- sharing LGMS news and exchanging relevant information and ideas with LGMS sponsors and supporters;
- promoting LGMS fundraising, encouraging donations and supporter sign up; and
- maintaining relationships with LGMS sponsors and supporters.

We have been encouraged by the positive feedback received from our fellow golfers, especially from Vincent's fellow PGA professionals and from those attending LGMS outreach events for the first time.

Against the backdrop of a high and rising cost of living, the Trustees are so grateful for the faithful giving of regular supporters and acknowledge the goodness of God in sustaining the ministry throughout another very challenging year of fund raising.
